

EDMESTON

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Burlison of New York spent last week in a cottage at Summit Lake in company with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Talbot, who has been visiting her son, Curtis Talbot, and family at Gallatinburg, Tenn., returned home last week.

Miss Glencie Talbot of Stamford was a guest at Charles Van Hoesen's over the week-end.

Miss Charlotte Talbot of Bay City, Mich., visited her mother, Mrs. L. D. Talbot, the past week.

Edmeston is well represented at the State Fair at Syracuse.

Miss Dorothy Watkins of Leonardsville is assisting Mrs. L. D. Hopkins with her household.

The Rev. R. E. Suetten and family returned home Saturday afternoon from a 3,500-mile trip with their house trailer.

Mrs. Maurice Parker entered the Bassett Hospital at Cooperstown last week for observation and treatment.

Mrs. William Partridge, who has been at the Bassett Hospital for several weeks, returned last week to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ben Miles.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight McKee of Buffalo are spending some time in the Kick-Kea Lodge at Summit Lake.

Mrs. William Ferris of Sidney, who came to the home of her son, Port Ferris, a couple weeks ago, suffered a stroke last week from which she did not rally and passed away on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ferris were residents here for several years when he was conductor on the O. & W. railroad.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Freytag and daughter, Martha, of Albany are week-end guests at Dan Pope's.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Van Horne and children of Watervliet visited their parents here over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson of Tarrytown spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Mina Weeks.

Miss Jayne Monroe spent the week-end in New York City with a friend.

Mrs. Mary Dye returned on Labor Day to Newburgh, after spending ten days with her daughter, Mrs. H. P. Talbot.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Burlison are moving into rooms in the Davis house, recently purchased by Ray Blackman.

Mrs. Nellie Benton suffered a stroke on Sunday and is in a very critical condition.

The Central school opened on Tuesday with the faculty as follows: George H. Purple, Principal; Colgate University; Arthur E. Vrooman, Agriculture; Cornell University; Clifford Manton, Social Science and Physical Education; Springfield College; Alonzo DuMont, Science and Mathematics; Albany State College; Loretta Buckley, English; Albany State College; Middlebury College; Phyllis Wheeler, Homemaking; Cornell University; Luella Cooke, Music; Crane, Potsdam; Ethel Burlison, Eighth Grade, Oneonta Normal; Hazel Jones, Seventh Grade, Oneonta Normal; Aline Chase, Fifth and Sixth Grades, Oneonta Normal; Ione Manwaring, Fourth Grade, Oneonta Normal; Carolyn Larson, Third Grade, Potsdam Normal; Alice George, Second Grade, Oneonta Normal; Anne Ackerman, First Grade, Oneonta Normal; Hulda Warren, Burlington Flats, Grades Fifth and Sixth; Oneonta Normal; Hazel Wrench, Burlington Flats, Grades Third and Fourth; Oneonta Normal; Isabelle Fitzgerald, Burlington Flats, Grades First and Second, Oneonta Normal. Rural schools: Wilma Sponable, Oneonta Normal; Elizabeth Harrington, Oneonta Normal; Emma Brooks, Oneonta Normal; Christina Shillito, Oneonta Normal; Gladys Simmons, Training Class; Doris Welch, Cortland Normal; Margaret Jones, Oneonta Normal.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Roshirt, Mrs. Cora Schlegel, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Roshirt, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miller and Clayton Miller of Nassau, Mrs. Rose Bruce, Mrs. Edith Clark and Lee Bruce of Schenectady were guests at Floyd Jackson's over Sunday and Monday.

SOUTH EDMESTON

Miss Jennie Phelps is visiting her niece, Mrs. Donald Rogers and family of Elizabethtown.

Myron Edmonds and family attended the Boutwell reunion at Rexford Falls, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Yates of Monticello, Mrs. Lillian Yates and son, George and Miss Lois Warner of Utica were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Spurr.

Mrs. Jennie Van Steenberg has returned home after spending two weeks with Mrs. L. S. Pope of New Berlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Webster and Mrs. Floris Gould attended the wedding of Adon Gould and Miss Helen Ferry of Masonville, Monday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Jones were in Syracuse Wednesday, and attended the fair.

Mrs. Mettie Carpenter and Mrs. Clifford Lloyd were guests Friday of Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Bagg of Edmeston.

Mrs. Lynn Tuttle and daughters of Frankfort are spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gazlay.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Turner of Schenectady, Mrs. George Abrams and Mrs. Floyd Pope were callers Sunday, of Mr. and Mrs. Alvah Day.

WEST EXETER

The village school opened Wednesday, Sept. 7th. Miss Loraine VanHynning of Oriskany Falls is the teacher for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. William Evans are the parents of a daughter, born September 2nd.

The Dickinson family reunion was held Labor Day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Crosby at West Winfield.

The Sunday School picnic of the Methodist Episcopal church was held Thursday of last week at Canadarago Lake.

The monthly meeting of the Community Club will be held Wednesday, September 14th at the home of Miss Julia Tierney.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Strobeck have returned to their home in Brooklyn after spending the week-end and Labor Day with Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Allen.

Mrs. Clara Dwight and daughter, Miss Grace Dwight of McGraw were Sunday guests at Esie Dyer's.

Miss Jessie Gray of Exeter has been spending the past week with Miss Greta Austin.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Smith of Norwich called on friends in town Sunday.

When There Are No Drownings

According to an Old Polish belief, no one can drown the night of June 23. The occasion is widely celebrated throughout Poland as St. John's eve. In pagan times the festivities honored the return of the sun, but today they hold their chief interest for unmarried girls. On that night girls throw garlands of flowers to their sweethearts, who row along in illuminated canoes.

BURLINGTON

Baptist church services every Sunday morning at 9:45 o'clock conducted by the pastor, the Rev. O. C. Newlon. Sunday school at 10:45 o'clock.

Miss Christine Shillito spent several days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gilchrist of Pierstown.

Mr. and Mrs. Kester Bookhout of Laurens and Cleon Benjamin of Millford were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Murray Benjamin.

Lloyd Fitch and Miss Christine Shillito attended the State Fair Friday.

The Misses Anna and Mary Salamacha left Tuesday to spend some time in New York City.

Mrs. A. Parshall of Oneonta spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Rosa Curry.

John J. Moran

John J. Moran, aged seventy years, passed away Sunday, August 28th, at the home of his sister, Mrs. Rosa Holdredge, who had cared for him during his last illness.

Mr. Moran was born at Starkville, Herkimer county, June 8, 1868, the son of John and Cornelia Fiske Moran. He leaves, besides the sister mentioned, one brother, Austin Moran of Hartwick; one niece, Mrs. Rosa Holdredge; and four nephews, Byron, DeForest, John and Donald Holdredge.

Funeral services were held at the Stillwell Funeral Home in Hartwick Wednesday afternoon of last week.

Mrs. Alice Bennett

Mrs. Alice Bennett passed away Sunday, August 28, at the home of Mrs. Walter Weaver who had been caring for her. She had been in poor health for several years suffering from sugar diabetes and complications.

Mrs. Bennett was born November 8, 1878 at Wharton in the town of Burlington, the daughter of Leander and Mary Frances Thurston Sweet and was married March 11, 1897 to Dean Bennett. Most of her life was spent in the town of Burlington.

She leaves to mourn her passing besides the husband, a daughter, Mrs. Milton Hillier, and a granddaughter, Barbara Sue Hillier of Johnson City; a sister, Mrs. Irving Green; several nieces and nephews and one cousin, Lewis Murphy of Richfield Springs.

Funeral services were held at the house Tuesday afternoon of last week, the Rev. A. D. Finch of Ithaca officiating, with burial in the Burlington Flats cemetery.

GILBERTSVILLE

Francis Daniels of New York joined his family here on Thursday of last week.

James Thorp of New York is spending a two-week vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin H. Thorp.

Michael Verres of Cleveland, O., joined Mrs. Verres here for the holiday week-end, the family expecting to leave for their home on Tuesday.

Miss Mable Musson and party, after spending two months in the Brewer house, left for State Island on Wednesday.

Mrs. William Wood has as her guest her cousin, Mrs. Donaldson of Washington Heights.

Douglas-McKee spent the week-end with his mother, Mrs. Anna McKee.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert MacKay of New York were guests Friday and Saturday of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander MacKay.

Miss Mary Hurlbutt had as her guests last week-end the Rev. and Mrs. Stephen Cunliffe and daughter, Helen, of Baldwinville.

Rear Admiral and Mrs. Alfred W. Johnson spent a few days last week at "Stony Ledge" with Mrs. Frederick Harris.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Deitz motored up from Brooklyn on Saturday and are with Mrs. William Deitz.

Mrs. Charles Daniels and Mrs. Alexander MacKay accompanied Francis Daniels on Saturday to Saranac Lake where he has been advised by his physician to go for rest and treatment. Mrs. Francis Daniels left the same day with her two children for Cleveland, O. Later in the month Miss Betty will enter Dennison College.

The September meeting of Tanderah Chapter, D. A. R., was held Saturday at the home of Mrs. James Wickes.

Size of Ireland

Ireland is not quite as large as the state of Maine. Its greatest length is 306 miles. The island's outline is an irregular oval, not unlike the knobby potato which has been christened "Irish."

WEST EDMESTON

School opened September 6th with Miss Emily Howard and Miss Elizabeth Watkins, teachers.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Maxson and daughters, Priscilla and Judith Ann of Bronxville and Mrs. George D. Maxson enjoyed a trip on Tuesday of last week to Fly Creek, where they called on Park Kuhl and family, and to Cooperstown, where they visited Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Ellsworth.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Evans and daughter, Katherine of Syracuse were Sunday guests of her mother and brother and with them enjoyed the day at the Welch-Belden camp at Summit Lake.

Mrs. Alice Welch is entertaining her sister, Mrs. Dyer of South New Berlin.

Miss Emily Howard has returned from a two-weeks' visit in St. Johnsbury, N. Y.

Mrs. S. I. Shatzel has been quite ill the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Ellsworth of Cooperstown were guests at the Maxson home, Friday.

Raymond Beach has recovered somewhat from the auto accident of June 25th, when he suffered a broken leg, and was able to make some calls in town, Sunday.

Miss Vera Moore was home from Columbus Center, Sunday.

Marlene and Winifred Nichols of Schenectady spent Sunday with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nichols.

SOUTH COLUMBIA

J. D. Hopkinson attended the State Fair Saturday. He reports the usual crowd and many attractions.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter K. Furman and son, Kenneth, of Torrington, Conn., were week-end guests of friends in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Shimmel and family motored to Cazenovia Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Seidell returned to their home in Danbury, Conn., after spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hopkinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Land are moving this week to a farm near Columbia Center.

Mrs. Minnie Wright of Schuyler Lake spent an afternoon recently with her cousin Mrs. Walter Welch.

We are glad to have Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Eastwood back again after a few months spent in Iliou.

Several are in attendance at the Brookfield Fair this week.

MORRIS

Town Clerk Robert M. Perry, who has been confined to his home by a leg injury for the past two weeks, is now able to walk downtown.

The new Socony station on Broad street is completed and is very attractive and an addition to the town.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Cossaart and two children, Donald, Jr., and Ann, who have been spending a week with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Cossaart, returned to their home in Union, N. J., Sunday.

Miss Esther Skjoldal of Roselle, N. J., a former Morris High school student, has been visiting Miss Beatrice Gage, at other friends in town the past week.

George Mansfield and daughter, Joyce, were in Catskill over the week-end and attended the wedding of Miss Van Deusen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Justus Van Deusen.

Miss Barbara Wild of Valatie, a former first grade teacher, has been in town the past week the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Kinney.

Services were resumed in the Universalist church Sunday, the Rev. Fred Leonard having returned from a month's vacation.

The Rev. H. E. Daniels, pastor of the Baptist church, and family returned home Wednesday evening of last week from a ten-days' vacation in Worcester, Mass., and other places in the New England States.

Miss Frances Parsons was a visitor in Unadilla over the week-end and attended old home day Monday.

A covered dish social will be held on the lawn of the Baptist church Tuesday evening for members of the church and congregation. Supper will be served at 6 o'clock and a program will follow at 7:30.

Another delightful evening was spent by about 400 guests on Franchot hill where again John Moyer with his assistants provided the usual feast of buttered rolls, hot dogs, and roasted corn, topped off by John's delicious ice cream. Assemblyman Chester T. Backus began the program. In his remarks he expressed the appreciation of the company and of the town to Mr. Franchot and to Mr. Moyer for their hospitality and cooperation in town affairs. Solos were sung by Mrs. Hazel Dykman, Mrs. Hobart Benjamin, Kenraid Shields and Edward Lankow; a duet was sung by Mrs. Benjamin and Mrs. Sutton; Miss Pearl Eaton, Mrs. Stella Wallace and Warren Fisher entertained with readings; Mrs. Van Rensselaer led in the community singing with Mrs. Willis as accompanist. A rising vote of thanks was tendered Mr. Moyer at the close.

Mrs. John Shaw, an instructor in the North Jersey Training school at Little Falls, N. J., was in Morris Wednesday of last week calling on old friends and neighbors.

Dr. Charles E. Vermilya of Church street went to North Plainfield, N. J., Thursday of last week to spend a few days with his son, Harold Vermilya and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Hopkins, who have spent the summer with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hopkins of West Main street, returned to their home in Glendale Thursday of last week.

Mrs. John Nicholson and two sons, John and William Nicholson and Mrs. Elizabeth Bartlett of East Millisnocket, Me., have been guests of Mrs. H. H. Linn of East Main street for several days.

A meeting of the Student Loan committee of the Morris Rotary club was held at the bank Monday evening of last week to make plans for a campaign to raise money for the fund. The campaign is to start officially about October 1st.

The student loan fund was given its original impetus by the Future Farmers organization of the Morris Central school. The Future Farmers have raised a field of potatoes, profits from which are to go toward the fund, now sponsored by the Rotary club. Already the fund has grown to a proportion which will make it important to students who wish to go to schools of higher learning in the future.

Central School Opens

The Morris Central school officially opened last week. There was no school Labor Day. The school will close at noon Tuesday, September 13th, for the Morris Fair.

The teachers had their first faculty meeting Wednesday of last week and made plans for the year.

The New Lisbon school did not open this year due to a lack of students. The students who did attend at New Lisbon are now riding on the bus to the central building.

Miss Lucinda Johnson, teacher at the New Lisbon school, will teach the new required safety course in all schools in the district. Miss Johnson attended the safety course given in Oneonta last winter and is well qualified to give the training in safety.

The Dimmock-Hollow school has been moved to its new foundation in order to make way for the new road between Morris and South New Berlin. The grading has not yet been completed, but the work has progressed sufficiently so that school may be held as usual. The moving and the grading was done by the Foote Bros., of Morris.

Besides moving the building back, they have put a new foundation under it, and straightened it up as needed. The building is in the best condition it has been in years.

The earliest known method of baking bread was to lay the mass of dough on hot stones and to cover it with glowing ashes.

Students Loan Fund

A meeting of the Student Loan committee of the Morris Rotary club was held at the bank Monday evening of last week to make plans for a campaign to raise money for the fund. The campaign is to start officially about October 1st.

The student loan fund was given its original impetus by the Future Farmers organization of the Morris Central school. The Future Farmers have raised a field of potatoes, profits from which are to go toward the fund, now sponsored by the Rotary club. Already the fund has grown to a proportion which will make it important to students who wish to go to schools of higher learning in the future.

Central School Opens

The Morris Central school officially opened last week. There was no school Labor Day. The school will close at noon Tuesday, September 13th, for the Morris Fair.

The teachers had their first faculty meeting Wednesday of last week and made plans for the year.

The New Lisbon school did not open this year due to a lack of students. The students who did attend at New Lisbon are now riding on the bus to the central building.

Miss Lucinda Johnson, teacher at the New Lisbon school, will teach the new required safety course in all schools in the district. Miss Johnson attended the safety course given in Oneonta last winter and is well qualified to give the training in safety.

The Dimmock-Hollow school has been moved to its new foundation in order to make way for the new road between Morris and South New Berlin. The grading has not yet been completed, but the work has progressed sufficiently so that school may be held as usual. The moving and the grading was done by the Foote Bros., of Morris.

Besides moving the building back, they have put a new foundation under it, and straightened it up as needed. The building is in the best condition it has been in years.

The earliest known method of baking bread was to lay the mass of dough on hot stones and to cover it with glowing ashes.

SOUTH HARTWICK

Mrs. Eimer McLeod and son, Douglas, visited her mother, Mrs. Harrington, in Oneonta Saturday.

Master Donald McLeod, who has spent two weeks there, returned home Sunday.

Jasper Wentworth and family of Cherry Valley visited Sunday at John George's.

Mrs. Uriah Balcom called on her friend, Mrs. Bennington, in Garrattsville Friday of last week.

Our school opened Tuesday, September 6th. Miss Susie Jones is the teacher.

Miss Helen Lockwood, who has been spending a thirty-days' vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Lockwood, has returned to her position in New York City.

Basil Grigsby is entertaining his parents from the state of Maryland for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Hosea Jones have gone to Rhode Island to accompany her brother who has been spending a few weeks with them, to his home in Providence.

Mrs. Silas Robinson entertained her brother and family Sunday.

Ray Jenks and family attended the Barton reunion at Gregory's cheese factory Monday.

Miss Edna Gillette, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis, has recovered sufficiently to return to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gillette.

Sportsmen Attention!

FIELD DAY

Sponsored by the

Cooperstown Fish and Game Club

TIME—Sunday, September 11, 9:30 a. m.

PLACE—"Stoney Lonesome"

ROUTE—Follow the arrows from Traffic Lights and Post Office in Cooperstown

FIELD TRIAL—Trap, Rifle and Pistol Shooting

Fly and Plug Casting

ATTRACTIVE PRIZES IN ALL EVENTS

Come and bring your family, bird dogs, favorite guns, basket picnic—spend the day

FREE COFFEE

Hot Dogs, Hamburgers and Rolls may be purchased on Grounds

FOLLOW THE ARROWS

This NEW Book costs nothing...but helps you save money

You will want a copy of this NEW, illustrated edition of our banking by mail book.

It tells how easily and safely you can BANK BY MAIL at this modern, Mutual Savings Bank. Describes different types of savings accounts. How you can deposit and withdraw funds as readily as though you lived right next door. And how interest paid from day of deposit and compounded quarterly makes your savings earn more money for you.

Send the coupon, NOW, for your free copy of this NEW EDITION booklet on saving with safety.

MAIL THIS COUPON TODAY—NO OBLIGATION

HOME SAVINGS BANK
11 North Pearl St., Albany, N. Y.

Please send me free copy of new banking by mail booklet.

Name _____ (Print Name and Address Plainly)
Address _____
City _____ State _____

THE MORRIS FAIR

Sixty-second Exhibition of the Morris Fair Association

Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday
September 13, 14, 15, 16

"THE FAIR THAT'S ALL FAIR"

The Only Fair in Otsego County

5 Free Attractions on the Roof Garden 5

1. The Tip-Top Girls, beautiful costumes and saucy steppers.
2. The Four Laddies—High Thrillers on apparatus 110 feet in the air.
3. Dr. Herman Ostermaier and his wonder horse, "Doheos," one of the most perfectly trained horses in the United States.
4. Captain Daniel E. Fox and his Troop C Rough Riders from Sidney.
5. Warren A. Allen, balloonist. You've seen him in the movies, now see him in person. He all but commits suicide in the air.

Two Fast Horse Races on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday

Educational and Industrial Exhibits

Little Country Theatre
Attractive Midway

4-H Demonstrations
Plain Dog Show

Music will be furnished each day by the Spring Garden Band of York, Pa., accompanied by an Electric Organ

O. O. BACKUS, President
C. L. SMITH, Secretary

Your Son or Daughter

While attending school — would enjoy a weekly letter from home.

Why not send the

OTSEGO FARMER

with all the Home News?

Special Price to June 8th

$1.00

