The Knit-Wits will hold their regular meeting with Mrs. Donna Jones, Tuesday afternoon. For the first time in many years, rabbits are with this area in large numbers so rabbit hunters are also plentiful.

The weekend brought a real January thaw, which melted all the snow Friday night and Saturday forenoon, so there was water everywhere and brooks just roared. All temperature records for January 11 were broken Saturday afternoon when they reached in the high 60's. Monday morning found the world blanketed with snow again.

It used to take four-and-one quarter pounds of feed to produce one pound of broiler meat but today only two pounds of feed is needed.
