

Hubert R. Fitch

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Tuesday in Morris, for Hubert Ray Fitch, 52, of Morris, who died Friday in Fox Hospital of a self-inflicted gunshot wound.

The Rev. Alvin Hansen of New Berlin will officiate. The body will be placed in the Hillington Cemetery vault for burial later this year.

Mr. Fitch was born in North Franklin July 28, 1902, son of Howard and Carrie (Gallup) Fitch. He married Elsie Southern April 12, 1920, in Morris.

A former resident of West Oneonta and West Laurens, he had lived in Morris for the past eight years. He was a member of the Oneonta local of the Carpenters Union.

He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Kathryn Manley of Hartwick and Mrs. Dorothy Miller of New Berlin; three grandchildren, Alana and Sandra Manley and Kathryn Miller, and a sister, Mrs. Maurice Whiteman, of Norwich.

Hubert R. Fitch, self-inflicted gunshot wound.

Clipped By:

bob_thomas_wk
Sat, Feb 26, 2022