Principal's Address to the Class of 1963

The years ahead are certain to be influenced by the products of today's schools. Government, industry, the Armed forces, private business, and other endeavors will find their future leaders from among the millions of youth who are completing their secondary education this year. Those youth who have persevered enough to attain the goal of a high school diploma may proudly proclaim this achievement. Many will not be content to rest on these laurels, however, but will set higher goals.

Further training beyond high school is almost a "must" these days. On the heads and shoulders of the graduates of institutions of higher learning will fall the responsibilities of the nation. A rich American heritage is available to all citizens of our country. Your share of this heritage will depend greatly on your preparation, your capabilities, your skills, and how you adapt yourself to the world. My admonition is to grasp every opportunity to improve yourself, and make the best use of these in securing a better education, a better career for the future, and in so doing, make a better America.

Junior Band

Morris Central Senior Band 1962-1963

The Band entered State Competition in the spring of 1962 at Harpur College. Competing in Grade 4 the band received an A rating, scoring 117 out of a possible 120 points.

In June of 1962 the band placed 2nd in concert competition at the Sherburne Pageant of Bands. This gives the band an over all record of concert competition at Sherburne of 5 first and 2 second places.

Representing the band at the sectional all-state festival held in Syracuse in November were Eileen Dodge and Elaine Wright, clarinets; and John Matteson, baritone.

During the 62-63 school year the band played for pep rallies, football games, the Senior Play and presented a winter and spring concert. Morris was also the host for the Area Music Festival held March 29th.

The band will compete in Grade 5 at the 63 spring state competition.

MISS FLO - Advisor

Every fall, in the month of November, in fourteen different areas or sections of New York State, a Sectional All-State Band, Chorus, and Orchestra are organized. Students from their respective sections participate in these organizations. These students are picked through recommendations from their directors.

Following this, in December, the All-State Band, Chorus, and Orchestra are held somewhere in the state. These are participated in by students who are picked by state-wide auditions.
